

Caribbean Information &
Credit Rating Services Limited

PRESERVING CONFIDENTIALITY OF PRIVILEGED INFORMATION

POLICY

CariCRIS will take utmost efforts in preserving confidentiality of privileged information obtained during the course of the rating exercise and use such information for the sole purpose of assigning credit ratings.

All rating committee members / rating analysts / research associates / consultants sign a confidentiality agreement with CariCRIS and adopt CariCRIS' code of ethics and standards of conduct, for maintaining confidentiality of privileged information and using such information for the sole purpose of assigning credit ratings.

CariCRIS will not reveal confidential information obtained during the rating exercise to anyone under any circumstances, except when required by law to specified authorities. When required to do so by law, CariCRIS shall disclose such privileged information, to Government and/or Regulatory Authorities including but not limited to the Central Bank and/or any other Statutory Authorities or a Court of Law.